

5th OpenLDAP Developer's Day

celebrating 20 years of OpenLDAP!

Computer Center of the University of Tübingen, Germany

October 8th

Preliminary Program

9:00-9:45	Welcome and introductory round	Peter Gietz, DAASI International
	History of OpenLDAP, The project, the technology and the performance	Matt Hardin, Symas/ Prof. Walter, University of Tübingen
9:45-10:30		Howard Chu, Symas
10:30-11:00	Talk on the OpenLDAP load balancer project	Ondrej Kuzník, Symas
11:00-11:15	Defense in Depth: Hardening an OpenLDAP deployment	Michael Ströder, stroeder.com
	Write your own PAM/NSS caching demon for LDAP with Python	Michael Ströder, , stroeder.com
11:15-11:30		Howard Chu, Symas
11:30-12:00	Overview of LMDB 1.0 features/enhancements
12:00-13:30	Lunch break and informal discussions
	OpenLDAP under RHEL: Dynamic Configuration(OLC), issues, etc.	Amit Kuma, Redhat
13:30-14:00	The role of private companies in Open Source Projects, using the case of the OpenLDAP Project and Symas as a model	Matt Hardin
14:00-14:30	Coffee break
14:30-15:00	Panel discussion on: panel corporate sponsors, their relationship with the Project, the challenges, and how the parties have benefited"	Matt / Peter / N.N.
15:00-15:45	General discussion on the future of OpenLDAP	All
15:45-17:00

More information at

<https://daasi.de/en/2018/08/14/5th-openldap-developer-day-2018-20-years-are-a-reason-to-celebrate/>